Dear Mr. Lang,

Where are the grievance procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints published? 28 C.F.R. § 35.107(b)

Mr. Tyler:

As outlined in the attached letter emailed to you, we have provided you with a process for prompt and equitable resolution to your complaint. We further recognized we do not have a "published ADA grievance procedure".

Sincerely

Mr. Lang,

How am I or anyone else expected to utilize a published grievance procedure providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints that doesn't exist despite being required by federal law (28 C.F.R. § 35.107[b])? A federal law which the state has become aware of its violation of and has still failed to take appropriate actions to remedy it. In my opinion, in and of itself constituting disability discrimination which is prohibited by federal law and for recipients and applicants of Federal financial assistance; i.e., 42 U.S.C. § 12132 -> 42 U.S.C. § 12133 -> 29 U.S.C. § 794a(a)(2) -> 42 U.S.C. § 2000d -> 42 U.S.C. § 2000d-1(1).

In accordance with 28 C.F.R. § 35.105(c)(2)-(3), I also wish to inspect your state's seemingly non-existent self-evaluation report as mandated by 28 C.F.R. § 35.105(a).

Mr. Lang,

What does providing a "...prompt and equitable response..." have to do with anything? Federal law, 28 C.F.R. § 35.107, requires New Hampshire to "...adopt and publish grievance procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints..." Resolution [rez-uh-loo-shuhn] is not the same as a response [ri-spons]. Part of the purpose of the grievance procedure being published is so people know they're being treated fairly and that things aren't being played by ear. If one thinks a resolution is unfair/unjust, one can then take that procedure to court for the matter to be adjudicated or litigated...

I'm aware of the "procedure" that the state has provided for my complaint about the state discriminating against me. What is the grievance procedure for me to file a complaint against the state for acting in violation of federal law 28 C.F.R. § 35.107(b) and 28 C.F.R. § 35.105(a)?

Federal law, 28 C.F.R. § 35.107, can be viewed at, <https://www.law.cornell.edu/cfr/text/28/35.107>. Disability discrimination codified can be viewed at, <https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/42/12132>
