Mr. Mathew Lee Tyler

Dear Mr. Mathew Tyler:

Thank you for your correspondence to the Office of the Attorney General regarding your allegation of unlawful discrimination. We appreciate your bringing this matter to our attention.

You may find helpful information and resources by visiting the Civil Rights Enforcement Section's page on the Attorney General's website at <https://oag.ca.gov/civil>.

The state agency with the authority to investigate complaints of discrimination in the areas of public accommodation, employment, housing, and hate violence is the Department of Fair Employment and Housing. This agency may be contacted as follows:

California Department of Fair Employment and Housing
2218 Kausen Drive, Suite 100
Elk Grove, CA 95758
Email: contact.center@dfeh.ca.gov
Telephone: (800) 884-1684
Videophone at (916) 226-5285 or TDD at (800) 700-2320. For persons with a hearing disability.

In addition, individuals who experience discrimination or other violations of law can often file a lawsuit in court. You may wish to consult with a private attorney to determine any civil remedies that may be available to you. An attorney would directly represent your interests and is the one whose advice would be most helpful to you. You may obtain a referral to a certified lawyer referral service by calling the State Bar at 1-866-442-2529 (toll free in California) or 415-538-2250 (from outside California), or via their website at <http://www.calbar.ca.gov>. If you cannot afford to pay an attorney, you may consider contacting your local legal aid office. For a referral, visit <http://lawhelpca.org/> and click on the Find Legal Help tab.

While we are not able to offer direct personal assistance with your problem, we sincerely appreciate your efforts in providing us with the information contained in your complaint. If the problem described in your complaint results in a formal action, we will have your name and address in our files and we will be able to contact you directly.

Again, thank you for contacting the Office of the Attorney General.

Sincerely,

Neha Chandra
