STATE OF CALIFORNIA

English

All are welcome to report hate incidents and hate crimes. It will take approximately 5-7 minutes to complete this report in its entirety.

If you want to report a hate crime to law enforcement immediately or you are in present danger, please call 911. This is not a law enforcement reporting portal.

Report a Hate Incident or Hate Crime

Thank you for submitting a report to CA vs. Hate

Reference #: ROH-20240704283

Thank you for submitting a report to CA vs. Hate.

An email has been sent to the email address you provided with additional resources for support. If you provided a phone number in your submission, you will receive a follow-up call from one of our colleagues to discuss your options for next steps, and if you are interested, to help connect you with resources and support that respect your needs.

To obtain information about the status of your report or to request support in the future, please use your Reference Number: ROH-20240704283

Your decision to report will also help people across the state of California who are targeted for hate receive the resources that they need. Government officials and community leaders will be able to use the information you shared (without personally identifying information) to help other people targeted for hate. Together, we are working to enhance efforts to prevent and respond to acts of hate more effectively.
